Generation 8: Pierre Sinotte married Elise Proulx 1883

Updated September 2013.

Pierre Sinotte was born 1855 in St-Dominique, QC, the fifth child of Joseph Loïselle (<https://sinotteloisellegenealogy.wordpress.com/2009/09/30/generation-7-joseph-loiselle-sinotte-married-marie-chapdelaine-1819/>) and Edesse Daignault. In 1871 Census, he was 15 and not in school.

He married Elise Proulx in 1883 in St-George-de-Windsor, QC. They had 15 children over 29 years.

Pierre Sinotte had red hair and large red handle-bar moustache. Claude Sinotte has a picture (per Yolande).

Pierre died at age 63 after a farm accident in the fourth row north to St-Georges-de-Windsor. He broke his back. He had the body perforated in several places and died after nine days “En Mai 1918, a St-George, Pierre Sinotte est victime d’un attelage quit prit l’épouvante, cet attelage tirait une herse. M. Sinotte fut pietine par un des cheveau et fut frappe par la herse. Un medecin de Wotton fut appele qui constata que la colone vertebrale avait ete brisee” (Source: Histoire de Windsor et ses environs, par Guy Moreau (<http://www.letincelle.qc.ca/index.asp?s=page&id=1340>), page 105).

We don’t have any Sinotte photos of Pierre or any of the Sinottes from St Georges. But would love to find some. So we are keeping our eyes out ... if you come across any, let us know!

Here is the reference to the newspaper article about the farm accident of Pierre Sinotte. The article reads: En Mai 1918, a St-George, Pierre Sinotte est victime d’un attelage quit prit l’épouvante, cet attelage tirait une herse. M. Sinotte fut pietine par un des cheveau et fut frappe par la herse. From 1978 to 1996, we lived in a house that once was owned by a Sinotte family. The house was located at the bottom of the hill just in front of the house of Provencher family. When we bought the house the Sinotte family have been gone since about 15 years.

Nicole Labreche thanks for your note. I have done a couple of road trips to St Georges over the years and didn't know at the time that there were Sinotte's still in the area. Too bad.

There were two Sinotte families still living in St Georges by the early 1970s. That would be Donat Sinotte and Maereda Sinotte.

And so much hoping to trace any photos of the Sinotte's in St Georges. Even a photo of the house would be lovely if you have one!

My mother, Estelle Boisclair, born May 31st 1916, died in october 2003. She was the daughter of Clara Sinotte and Edmour Boisclair.

Estelle Boisclair married Léon Caron in 1939, they had 9 children between 1940 and 1957:

André

Jean

Micheline

François

Christiane

Francine

Suzanne

Diane

Alain

I have a question regarding Élise Proulx, it seems to me that my mother mentionned that her grandmother would have been of indian descendants ???

Nice to hear from your Francine. You would be my dad's second cousin. I am told that my grandmother lived in Coaticook near your family in the late 1940s. I don't suppose you guys have any old photos of the Sinotte's from their time in Coaticook or from visits to relatives in St-George? We don't have any photos at all.

I have Elise Proulx's grandmother as Marie-Agathe Genereux married Jean-Baptiste Proulx in 1821 in Berthier, QC. I didn't pull the marriage record so not sure of her parents or her ancestry. But I will keep an eye out. Let me know if you find anything! I understand that there are still Proulx's in St-Georges as well who might know more.

What were your grandmother's and grandfather's names ?

Also, I would like to send you photos of my mother and her sister visiting in St-Georges and also a photo of Clara Sinotte and Edmour Boisclair's marriage. Please send me your email adress.

Hi,First I want to thank you again Karen for information you sent me by mail about 20 years ago.Pierre was the brother of my great great grandfather.I have 3 photos. One is of my grandfather visiting relatives in,which I assume,is in St George,I am guessing it had to be between 1940 -1948. One photo is of 10 adults and a boy about 9-12 years old, one is of 6 adults and 1 boy,1 girl around 6-8 years old and from the clothing I am guessing it is in the 1920's. The other photo is of a couple in they 30-40 year old range ,which I believe are my grandparents but I cannot be certain,it may be of interest because they are posing in front of a house.If anyone is interested I will try to upload them.Just want to add this website is priceless,thanks for all the work you have done.

Norm.
